- c. Schedule briefing for City Council?
- d. Tsunami Ready Re-Certification (2023)
Designation Renewals. As of Jan 15, 2021, the renewal period for Tsunami Ready & Storm Ready destinations was extended to 4 years. The designations in Lincoln County that were last renewed in 2019 are now up for renewal in 2023. These include: Lincoln County, Depoe Bay, Waldport, Yachats, and Toledo. Lincoln City is up for renewal in 2024.
- e. Everbridge Memo/SignOn
You can use your keyword - Yachats - at any time. This is by subscriber text only. Currently there is no one trained or has access at Yachats to do this. I trained folks years ago but I don't think it has ever been used.
Regarding actual alerts to landline and opt in profiles - it has to meet the criteria and the request would come to me and/or to dispatch then to County EM to approved based on protocols the Sheriff has established for the program.
We can send community information emails only if it warrants an information need for the entire community; again that request would still come through me.
- f. EOC Toolkit Documents/BaseCamp sign on?
FEMA has finally recognized that EOC's operate differently than Incident Command Posts and have been creating documents specifically for EOC's. This might be useful in your planning efforts. All of our local EOC tools we developed and put in place in 2019 are available in Basecamp - let me know if you don't have access.

III. Current Business

- a. What, exactly, do we want to update in the EOP regarding wildfires?
- b. See attached file on Evacuation (for Hotels and Motels)
- c. NW Fire Evacuation Vulnerability
- d. Schedule removal and replacement of conex (or postpone)
- e. Any update regarding YRFPD meetings?

IV. Old Business

- a. City Council Action items
- b. Update on letter of promulgation
- c. Update on council representative
- d. Update on City Staff training
- e. Red Cross needs updated contact info and signature for Facility Use Agreement
The previous agreement was signed by Mayor Stanley, with Shannon Beaucaire as our primary contact. Normally, we would look to initiate a new agreement with a change in authority, now Mayor Leslie Vaaler. Presuming a continuing willingness on the part of Yachats to offer the Commons, we can wait on a new agreement until a formal City Manager selection, or I can draft a new agreement.
The immediate ask is for one (or two) contact name and 24/7 phone number to use if necessary. Again, happy to discuss further if you would like.
