	After the executive session meeting to consider employment of a public officer, the council opened the Special Regular meeting to conduct business and possible vote.
	Mayor Berdie, read into the record the following statement:

Whereas the council has undertaken with the assistance of Jensen Strategies, a search for a new city manager; and

Whereas the council finds that among the other skills and competencies that are required in a city manager. The city manager serving the city of Yachats should have a deep understanding of the values expressed in the city's vision statement.

Following an extensive discussion and reflection, the city council concluded that candidate Bobby Price is the best candidate. The council is confident that with the support of the council and with the access to the tools that the council will provide, candidate price will be successful in the position of city manager.

Now, therefore, the council determines that Bobby Price should be offered the position of city manager subject to contractual terms, including salary being negotiated and agreed to by both parties.
