	The previous executive session was to discuss the possible raise for city manager per her agreement to recap for agreement calls for reviews during the year and three additional reviews This review would possibly include a financial possibility. There's an additional 9 months open discussion and then at the end of year there's another option for additional fund additional.
	Statement read into the record by the Mayor: To effectively evaluate the city manager's performance. The City Council utilized the 360-degree methodology. This approach allowed the council to gather input from citizens, commissioners, employees and council. The questions were derived from the city manager's job description and expectations as it's described in her employment agreement. While no job evaluation is entirely objective. This methodology does provide a measurable and repeatable evaluation. We're delighted to announce that due to the exceptional performance noted by all city constituents, we are offering the city manager a raise of $10,000. This brings your salary closer to that of other city managers in our area. And as well deserved. Thank you, Bobby, for your exceptional, measurable performance.
